

RS- Pharmacology

Archive

Lecture 3

Medical card

Name _____

Date of b _____

Gender _____

Address _____

Date of call _____

Collected By:

Mohammad Mousa

1. All of the following are true regarding the treatment of acute severe asthma except:

- A) Humidified oxygen
- B) Nebulized B2 adrenergic agonist
- C) IV fluid
- D) Potassium and sodium bicarbonate
- E) Oral glucocorticoid

Answer: D

2. Which of the following statements about the treatment of asthma is incorrect?

- A) Salmeterol can be used as a rescue inhaler during acute asthma attacks.
- B) Inhaled corticosteroids are effective for long-term control of asthma symptoms.
- C) Short-acting beta-agonists (e.g., albuterol) are preferred for immediate relief during an acute attack.
- D) Systemic corticosteroids are often used for severe asthma exacerbations.

Answer: A

3. Patient with daily shortness of breath, loss of 40% of pulmonary function test, diagnosed with acute asthma attack with moderate severity. Best corticosteroid for this emergency:

- A) IV Methylprednisolone
- B) Prednisolone
- C) Budesonide
- D) Fluticasone
- E) Beclomethasone

Answer: A