

pathology

Archive

Lecture 13

Archive Pathology "13" Hemodynamic Disorders & Thromboembolism & Shock 'III'

Corrected By :

Alaa Alsbou

Designed By :

Raneem Dmour

1) The most common arteriolar embolization site of systemic embolization is:

- A. intestines.
- B. Kidneys
- C. the lower extremities
- D. central nervous system
- E. Spleen

Answer: C

2) All of the following contribute to thrombosis by abnormal blood flow except :

- A. Ulcerated atherosclerotic plaques
- B. aortic aneurysm
- C. Hyperviscosity syndromes / polycythemia
- D. Sickle cell anemia
- E. Leukemia

Answer: E

3) All the following are clinical manifestations to phospholipid antibody syndrome except:

- A. recurrent thrombosis
- B. thrombocytosis
- C. Repeated miscarriage
- D. cardiac valve vegetation

Answer: B

NOTE: No related info was found in our slides, However, it is in روح's slides

- clinical manifestations, including :
 - recurrent thromboses.
 - repeated miscarriages.
 - cardiac valve vegetations.
 - thrombocytopenia