

MSS - Anatomy

Archive

Lecture 13

posterior abdominal wall & diaphragm

Done by :

Aya Ayman

Anatomy - lecture (12)

1. One of the following is incorrect regarding aortic opening :
- A- Opposite T10.
 - B- Part of major opening of the diaphragm.
 - C- It's site is in medial plane.
 - D- Azygos vein pass through it.
 - E- Thoracic duct pass from it.

Answer: A

- 2.*One of the following structure is not lateral relation of psoas major :
- A- Iliacus muscle.
 - B- Ilioinguinal nerve.
 - C- Femoral nerve.
 - D- Iliohypogastric nerve.
 - E- Genitofemoral nerve.

Answer: E

3. All of the following about Quadratus Lumborum are correct except:
- A) It attaches to the transverse processes of all lumbar vertebrae
 - B) is innervated by T12 spinal nerve
 - C) Bilateral action leads to extension of trunk

Answer: A

Anatomy - lecture (12)

4. All of the followings about oesophageal opening in diaphragm are true except?

- A) left curs compress the eosphagus
- B) opposite to T10
- C) passes also right epigastric artery

Answer: A

5. One of the following is the origin of quadretus lamborum:

- A- 4 lumber vertebrae
- B- 5 lumber vertebrae
- c- inner surface of iliac crest
- D- outer surface of iliac crest
- E- last rib

Answer: c