

The single most valuable sign in acute appendicitis is?

Select one:

- a. Localized right iliac fossa tenderness.
- b. Rebound tenderness.
- c. Psoas sign.
- d. Rovsing sign.
- e. Obturator sign.

(A)

Question 53

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

Flag question

A 14-year-old girl known case of sickle cell anemia came to the emergency with sudden right upper quadrant abdominal pain. Ultrasound reveals a dilated thickened gallbladder filled with stones. A cholecystectomy is performed. The gallbladder contained multiple faceted tiny dark black gallstones. Which of the following is the most likely main component of these stones?

Select one:

- a. Triglycerides
- b. Magnesium
- c. Calcium bilirubinate
- d. Melanin
- e. Cholesterol

Clear my choice

Question 42

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

Flag question

Incidental finding of single 1 cm gallbladder stone in otherwise healthy medically free asymptomatic 25-year-old female should require one of the following?

Select one:

- a. laparoscopic cholecystectomy.
- b. Open cholecystectomy.
- c. Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI).
- d. Computed Tomography (CT).
- e. Observation until she develops symptoms.

Question 40

Not yet
answered

Marked out of 1.00

Flag question

One of following is part of ALVARADO score?

Select one:

- a. Anorexia
- b. Rovsing sign.
- c. Pointing sign.
- d. Obturator sign.
- e. Psoas sign.