

RHD

MCQs

- true about acute rheumatic fever?

Aspirin is used for artheritis

- Major manifestations of acute rheumatic fever include all of the following except?

- a. Arthralgia
- b. Subcutaneous nodules
- c. Carditis
- d. Chorea
- e. Erythema marginatum

- the causative organism in rheumatic fever is?

- a. Echo virus
- b. B Haemolytic Streptococcus group A
- c. Streptococcus viridians
- d. E.coli
- e. Staph aureus

- Which of the following statements concerning acute rheumatic fever is true? Select one:

- a) Migratory polyarthritits occurs in 10% of patients
- b) Sydenham's chorea typically occurs early in the course of the disease
- c) Erythema marginatum is a common finding , occurring in 50% of cases
- d) Secondary prophylaxis should be initiated in order to decrease recurrent episodes of rheumatic fever
- e) Group A streptococci can usually be recovered in the upper respiratory tract of patients with rheumatic fever

- pt. with prev. hx of rheumatic heart disease history but with new murmur what's the cause?

strep. Viridins

it could be indicative of infective endocarditis.

- Major criteria for Rheumatic fever include all the following Except.

- a- carditis
- b- Sydenham's chorea
- c- Polyarthralgia
- d- Erythema marginatum
- e-Subcutaneous nodules

arthritis not arthralgia ..this is minor criteria.

- young female with left ankle and knee swelling and hx of sore throat ?

rheumatic fever

- Organism responsible for rheumatic fever is:

a-streptococcus pyogens

b-mycoplasma

c- streptococcusviridians

d- B heamolytic streptococcus ?

e-staphylococcus aures