

Mini-Osce Dermatology.

1. -What's the cause of:

*tenia versicolor-malassezia furfur

*tenia capitis caused by dermatophyte

2. -Kaposi sarcoma seen in: AIDS

3. Nisseria gonorrhoea incubation period :3-5 day

4. -is scabies a highly contagious? No

5. -mention two clinical presentation of chancroid* painful genital ulcer multiple with tender

*(painful lymphadenopathy mostly unilateral bobbo

6. -pitted keratolysis affect the sole of the feet and less often the palm of the hand (true)

7. -white spots that can be scraped off the surface, long yellowish streaks within the nail substance mainly cause by fungal infection is definition for onychomycosis.

8. -following a number of stimuli the majority of hair follicles may enter the resting phase (telogen) at the same time (synchronously) resulting in diffuse shedding approximately 2 months after the triggering event, often described as the hair 'falling out by the roots' definition for: Telogen effluvium

9. -bambo hair seen in: Netherton syndrome

10.-two drug exacerbated psoriasis:

B blocker NSAID

11.-two drug cause Agne lithiumphantoin

12. -what the secondary lesion of chronic eczema lichenification

13.-transition stage of hair catagen

14. -two skin manifestation in bacterial endocarditis Osler node.janeway, lesion

15. -two systemic treatment of psoriasis biological treatment phototherapy

16.-most common cause of bullous impetigo in s aureus(true)

17.-one example caused by s aureus bullous impetigo

18.-two skin manifestations cause by Gandida onychomycosis. napkin Candida

19. -appear of: (pustule), indication of bacterial folliculitis

20. -primary lesion of herpes simplex vesicle

21.-cold sore and genital herps: bsv 22. -two drug induced lichen planus:

23.-molluscum contagiosum treated by antiviral(false)

24. DYSHIDROTIC ECZEMA affect:the hands (chipompbelok) and/or feet (peslapomphelor)