

QUIZ 31

1) comprehensive is Effective primary care physicians view patients from a broad perspective, taking into account physiology, physical illness, emotional health and the social, occupational, and environmental context within which the patients' lives. ?

A) true

B) false

2) head movement worsening peripheral vertigo only ?

A) true

B) false

3) which one of family medicine's principles represent self empowerment and self management ?

A) holistic

B) comprehensive

C) preventive

D) patient centered

4) initial investigation of chronic fatigue except?

A) hiv

B) cbc

C) liver function

D) TSH

5) all of the following are included in centors criteria except:

A) absence cough

B) tender in anterior cervical lymph node

C) rhinorrhea

D) tonsillar exudate

6) all of the following are considered the components of ascvd score except?

- A)age
- B)hdl
- C) treated hypertension
- D)BMI

7)drugs that inhibit cholesterol absorption in small intestines)

- A)statin
- B)fenofibrate
- C)Ezetimibe

8)One of the following about true about resistant hypertension ?

Bp 150/90 with captopril/amlodipin/hydrochlorthiazide

9)which one is common cause of of secondary HTN?

- A)obstructive sleep apnea
- B)acromegaly
- C)cushing
- D)primary hyperarathyrdsim

10)all of the following are considered spontaneous episodic vertigo except ?

- A)vestibular migraine
- B)Meniere disease
- C)panic disorder
- D)acute labrynthits